

The diagram shows two rulers, one labeled 'změna č. 8' and the other 'změna č. 5', placed diagonally. The ruler 'změna č. 8' has markings every 8 units, with a red dashed line indicating a unit of 8. The ruler 'změna č. 5' has markings every 5 units, with a red dashed line indicating a unit of 5. The two rulers are aligned such that their units are compared, demonstrating the need for a common unit of measurement.
